Join us for a Valentine Evening of Storytelling and Healing Sound

“Folk Tales of Ever-Lasting Love”

Presenters: Christel Lukoff, social worker at Hospice of Petaluma and psychotherapist.
Deb Grant, social worker at Memorial Hospice and sound healer.

Hospice of Petaluma
416 Payran Street, Petaluma

February 10, 2016
5:30 p.m. — 7:30 p.m.

Memorial Hospice
439 College Avenue, Santa Rosa

February 17, 2016
5:30 p.m. — 7:30 p.m.

Following the oral tradition, Christel will present traditional folktales and myths about all kinds of love that warm the heart and nourish the soul. These stories remind us that death ends a life but not a relationship, and rekindle in each of us the importance of memories.

Coming in March: “Japanese American Internment during WWII,”
Henry Kaku, Origami Master and Judo Master, will share the poignant and personal story of his family and the 120,000 others who lost their homes and property, and were sent to internment camps until the war ended.

Light refreshments will be provided by  Whole Foods

This free program is one of the ways Hospice Services of St. Joseph Health thanks our community for the incredible support we have received throughout the years.
