

Love Poems to the Earth

On the Feast of St. Valentine, a group of poets will share their love poems to the Earth, the Great Mother, Madre Tierra, Tonantzin, Pachamama, life-giver and standard of all beauty, whom we have treated with such unkindness and abuse that in her high fever the glaciers melt, land goes dry, forests burn; and in her delirium, storms rage and rivers flood. Everyone is welcome and there will be time for questions and answers. We pray that we be ignited with the fierce love it will take for us to heal ourselves and our Mother.
