

Pollination Symposium

Saturday, February 26, 2011

9:00 am - 3:30 pm

Pollination
Guelph

Pollination Items!

Display Booths!

Admission, Silent Auction and a Sales Table to raise money for Pollination Guelph and the Eastview Pollinator Park

Lunch is included

Register in advance for $30 (payable in cash at the event) or pay $35 at the door.

Please pre-register by sending an e-mail with the participant's name(s) to pollinationguelph@gmail.com

This event will be held in the gym at Harcourt United Church, located at 87 Dean Ave in Guelph.

- 9:00 Registration and Silent Auction begins
- 9:20 Pollination Guelph: Updates from 2010 and plans for 2011 – Vicki Beard, Pollination Guelph
- 9:40 International Pollinator Week 2011: Mobilize your community to become pollinator stewards
– Sabrina Malach, 2010 NAPPCC Canadian Pollinator Advocate Award recipient
- 10:00 The Plight of the Bumble Bee: What you need to know about these fuzzy pollinators – Sheila Colla, York University
- 10:40 Break/Silent Auction bids
- 11:00 To Plant or not to Plant: Comparing the value of native/non-native plants for pollinators – Victoria MacPhail, Pollination Guelph
- 11:40 The Learning Garden at St. Patrick's School – Jacqui Defreitas
- 12:00 Lunch/Silent Auction bids
- 1:00 Flies and flowers: Identifying the OTHER pollinators – Dr. Stephen A. Marshall, University of Guelph
- 1:40 Collecting and sourcing seed for ecological restoration and naturalization projects – Graham Buck, Nith River Native Plants
- 2:20 Break/Silent Auction bids
- 2:40 The Art and Science of Creating Sustainable Landscapes – Jeff Thompson, Native Plant Source
- 3:20 Silent Auction Conclusion, Wrap-Up and Thank-Yous

Go to www.pollinationguelph.ca for more information.